

Cornerstone Update January 12, 2018 (still feels strange to type 2018)

New Adult Sunday School Class

Beginning this Sunday, 9:30 AM in the cafeteria Dave Beitler will give the first of three lessons on “Big-Little Words” in the Bible. If you thought Dave’s fastball was leading choirs you haven’t heard him teach the Bible. In this class David will show how some of the smallest words in the Bible – the words we often overlook – can be key to understanding and interpreting the text. I think you’ll enjoy the study.

Coffee House Reception

Monday, January 15, 6:30-8:00 pm, drop by Stomping Grounds Coffee in Fairview and let us buy you a cup of coffee. We’ve reserved the whole place! Especially if you’re fairly new to Cornerstone we want to get to know you better. We’d also love to help you get connected at Cornerstone. It will be an informal time to chat with the pastors, elders, staff and other members of Cornerstone and answer any questions you may have. Everyone is welcome!

GriefShare Website

It hurts to lose someone and we lost a lot of dear friends and family members in 2017. If you are struggling and feeling a little overwhelmed by grief, you may want to check out a GriefShare class near us (there are at least 5 within 10 miles of Gresham). Linda Jeffries and others have said the class – and the daily GriefShare emails – really helped her cope with the loss of her dad.

Thank You Note

Dear church family, Thank you so much for the gorgeous get well bouquet! I am immeasurably cheered by its presence on my living room table, a continual warm reminder of my church family. It means a lot! Love, Sally Works

Don’t forget to pray.
