

Cornerstone Update August 29, 2017

Up Next: Labor Day Weekend

- Next Sunday, September 3, will mark the end of summer. That day we will revert to our “winter” service time – 10:30 am, and we could also use some help setting up and taking down. Paul and Jim will both be on one last summertime fling so Gary is left with the bag and some of his team will be gone. So if you’re up and around by 8:30 next Sunday morning, come help us set up but be warned: Gary is fast to recruit good workers to his Ops team.
- The Treat Table will be back and we should have time for sharing prayer requests and praise during the service. I’ll preach from Hebrews 11:24-26 and the early life of Moses – Doing Right Wrong.

NOE Special Sunday Offering

We’ll receive our third Special Sunday offering of 2017 on Sunday, September 24. The entire offering that day will help NOE purchase a van. Right now they are sharing one van between three locations and they’re running the tires off of it.

For Women Only

Here’s a list of fall women’s Bible studies and information on a Fall Book Discussion for empty nester women.

Don’t forget to pray.
